

Formal Review

Title 246 Washington Administrative Code

Department of Health	Status
246-100 – Communicable and certain other diseases	July 2015 began developing list of needed changes for communicable diseases. Estimated completion date December 2016.
246-101 – Notifiable conditions	July 2015 began review of needed changes for communicable diseases, estimated completion date December 2016. Estimated start date for review of the remainder of rule sometime in 2016.
246-105 – Immunization of child care and school children against certain vaccine-preventable diseases	SBOH delegated rulemaking to DOH to update rules to cite 2015 edition of the ACIP/MMWR. Hearing is scheduled for June 7, 2016.
246-110 – Contagious disease—School districts and childcare centers	Rule was updated in 2013. Estimated start date for review 2018.
246-205 – Decontamination of illegal drug manufacturing or storage sites	A section of the rule was amended in December 2014. Started further review July 2015.
246-215 – Food service	Review starting January 2018 to coincide with 2017 FDA Food Code.
246-217 – Food worker cards	Review starting January 2018.
246-260 – Water recreation facilities	Estimated start date for review July 1, 2016
246-262 – Recreational water contact facilities	Estimated start date for review July 1, 2016
246-270 – Sewer systems—Certification of necessity for water district involvement	Review began December 1, 2014. Expected completion date July 2016.
246-271 – Public sewage	Review completed May 2016.
246-272A – On-site sewage systems	Review completed May 1, 2013. Review required by WAC 246-272A-0425 must be completed by September 2017.
246-272C – On-site sewage system tanks	Review completed July 2015. Estimated start date for next review July 2020.
246-280 – Recreational shellfish beaches	Estimated start date for review July 1, 2017.
246-282 – Sanitary control of shellfish	Rule revisions to sections -005 and -006 under way. Estimated chapter review start date July 1, 2017.
246-290 – Group A public water supplies	Rule making regarding fluoride was completed in April 2016. Anticipate rules hearing for rule making regarding: total coliform; water system planning; disinfection; emergency sources and supplies; and general housekeeping changes, October 2016.

Formal Review

Title 246 Washington Administrative Code

Department of Health	Status
246-291 – Group B public water systems	Estimated start date for review January 1, 2018.
246-360 – Transient accommodations	These rules now are under the Division of Environmental Public Health. Anticipated start date for review July 2017.
246-366 – Primary and secondary schools	Review is being done in response to the Governor's Directive 16-06, regarding Lead. Estimated completion date for review October 2016.
246-366A – Environmental health and safety standards for primary and secondary schools (Effective July 1, 2017.)	Review is being done in response to the Governor's Directive 16-06, regarding Lead. Estimated completion date for review October 2016.
246-390 – Drinking water certification rules	In rule making status. Review will be completed by July 2018.
246-491 – Vital statistics—Certificates	Estimated start date for review August 2016.
246-650 – Newborn screening	Rule was updated in October 2014. During the 2015 legislative session, Critical Congenital Heart Disease was added to the newborn screening law. SBOH anticipates beginning rulemaking to add Adrenoleukodystrophy (ALD) to the rule sometime in 2016.
246-680 – Prenatal tests—Congenital and heritable disorders	Review completed April 2014. DOH recommends the rule be updated.
246-710 – Coordinated children's Services	Review completed in September 2014. DOH recommends amending rules. Unclear at this time whether DOH or SBOH has some general authority to update rules.
246-760 – Auditory and visual standards—School districts	Review of auditory rules completed July 2014. DOH recommends rules be amended. Review of visual acuity standards completed December 2014. DOH recommends rules be amended. Rulemaking currently in process. Anticipate briefing to the board in August 2016.

State Board of Health	Status
246-203 – General sanitation	Review completed in July 2014. SBOH staff recommends portions of the rule need to be amended or repealed. Next review estimated to begin in 2019. Rulemaking regarding keeping of animals is anticipated to be completed by December 2016.
246-374 – Outdoor music festivals	Review completed in October 2014. SBOH staff recommends retain without changes. New review estimated to begin in 2019.
246-376 – Camps	Review completed in October 2014. SBOH staff recommends retain without changes. New review estimated to begin in 2019.
246-500 – Handling of human remains	Review completed in June 2014. SBOH staff recommends retain without changes. Next review estimated to begin in 2019.